

India & Pakistan: Pathways Ahead

Amitabh Mattoo, Kapil Kak and Happymon Jacob (Eds.)

Published by

Department of Strategic and Regional Studies, University of Jammu, Jammu

In association with KnowledgeWorld Publishers Pvt Ltd, New Delhi

(Rs. 840, 320 pp.)

Contents:

Introduction

1. India-Pakistan Relations: Towards a Grand Reconciliation
By Amitabh Mattoo

Regional Dimension

2. Geo-Politics in Southern Asia and its Impact on India-Pakistan Relations
By Happymon Jacob
3. Nuclear Stability in South Asia: Issues and Challenges
By Jasjit Singh
4. Theorising Territory and Borders in the India-Pakistan Conflict
By Devika Sharma

India–Pakistan Relations: From the Past to the Present

5. Reconstructing the Evolutionary Narrative
By Kalim Bahadur
6. Engaging Pakistan: From the NDA to the UPA
By Malini Parthasarathy
7. Another Shot at Bilateralism? Compulsions, Constraints and Calculations Behind the Peace Process
By Sushant Sareen
8. India and Pakistan Security Discourse
By Rajesh Rajagopalan
9. Crossing the Lines: A Pakistani Looks at Science and Society in India
By Pervez Hoodbhoy

10. India-Pakistan Relations: The Jihadi Impediment
By Wilson John

11. The Indus Waters and Pakistan's Water Security
By A.K. Pandey

12. Cross-Border Terrorism: A Review
By Afsir Karim

Peace Building in Jammu Kashmir

13. The Peace Process: A View from Jammu
By Rekha Chowdhary

14. The Peace Process: View From Leh
By P. Stobdan

15. Peace Process and Imperatives of Resolving the Kashmir Problem
By Noor Ahmad Baba

16. Kashmir: How to Grasp the Nettle
By Prem Shankar Jha

17. Resolving the Kashmir Issue: A Dream Worth Dreaming
By Pran Chopra

18. Jammu and Kashmir: The Internal Dimension
By Radhavinod Raju

India-Pakistan Relations: The Way Forward

19. India-Pakistan Neemrana Initiative: An Experiment in Track Two Diplomacy
By Satish Kumar

20. India-Pakistan Relations: Is The Peace Process "Irreversible"?
By Frederic Grare

Conclusion

21. India and Pakistan Bilateral Dynamics
By Kapil Kak